GERMANS HAVE NEW FEAR

Extra Precautions Taken on West Schleswig Coast.

PPARIS, Aug. 6.—A dispatch to Le Temps from Copenhagen says that, according to the Danish newspapers, Germans now fear a landing of hostile troops on the western coast of Schleswig. The inhabitants of that district have been warned to sleep in cellars as a precaution against air raids.

The same dispatch declares that the German staffs have taken elaborate measures to guard against an attack upon the Kiel canal. The rigid regulations which have been put in force make travel in Schleswig almost impossible.

WOULD KEEP U. S. OUT

Vienna Paper Says Germany Does Not Want War.

GENEVA, Aug. 6.—A telegram from Vienna says that the newspaper Neue Wiener Journal expresses the opinion that Germany will give pledges to the United States not to torpedo any ships having Americans on board because Germany does not want war with a nation of such strength as America.

LADY'S BATHING SUITS ARE HELD DISORDERLY

Postmaster at Rockaway Beach, N. J., Puts Question Up to Department.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—"Is my lady's bathing suit, especially if designed to display her charms, disorderly?"

This is the question that soon may be put to Postmaster General Burleson by the fair bathers of Rockaway beach, New York.

Reports from the beach say William A. McVey, postmaster there, has prohibited women from entering the postoffice in their bathing costumes. He is understood to have issued this ukase under his blanket authority to "maintain order in the postoffice".

No action will be taken here until a formal appeal is made and the fair bathers present their attire for the inspection of the postmaster general.
